

THE STANDARDBRED & TROTting HORSE ASSOCIATION OF GREAT BRITAIN & IRELAND (STAGBI)

APPLICATION for EXPORT CERTIFICATE

INSTRUCTIONS

This Application pack is for a horse registered with STAGBI that is to be exported to another country. An application for an export certificate must be applied for, BEFORE the horse leaves Great Britain or Ireland.

You are required to complete the following forms

- Application for EXPORT CERTIFICATE (PART A)
- Equine Identification (PART B) to be completed by Veterinary Surgeon
- Microchip & DNA Declaration (PART C) to be completed by Veterinary Surgeon

Please return the following to the STAGBI Office, address below.

- The completed forms PARTS A, B & C
- Hair Sample for DNA analysis
- Photocopy of the following pages of the horse's STAGBI passport:
 - i) Identification page (Section II, page 7*)
 - ii) Mark Up (Silhouette & written description) pages (Section III, page 8 & 9*)
*please note these are the page numbers for current passports, older passports may vary. If you are unsure, please check with STAGBI
- Photocopy of Certificate of Registered Ownership
- Appropriate Fees: Application for Export Certificate Fee - £100; Membership Fee £10 if required; Cheques payable to STAGBI or payment can be made by BACS, details below). In the event of more than one owner, each owner must sign the forms and be a current member of STAGBI.

Once the application is received by STAGBI, the performance record of the horse in Great Britain & Ireland will be requested from the appropriate racing authorities.

The Export Certificate will be issued directly to Registry of the country of destination.

If you require further assistance, please contact STAGBI Office
